

YMCA Camp of Maine

2010 Teen Adventure/Sneak Preview

TAC 1: 1 Week/ June 27 – July 3: Moose Viewing /Mountain Climbing/ White Water Rafting

Take a trip North to Greenville, Maine. Set up camp at Lilly Bay State Park and search for Moose in the surrounding area. Then take a hike up Big Squaw Mountain. Travel to the Forks, Maine for one overnight and one day of White Water Rafting down the Kennebec River.

TAC 2: 2 Weeks/ July 4 – July 17: Rock Climbing & Sea Kayaking

Climb the 80 foot cliffs in Acadia National Park with a trained certified climbing school. Explore the National Park and visit Bar Harbor. Finish off the second week with a guided Sea Kayak Trip at Acadia National Park.

TAC 3: 2 Weeks/ July 18 – July 31 Wet & Wild Weeks & Whale Watching

Travel the Route 1 Corridor visiting “Splash Town USA” ---- cool off on the water slides and wave pool. Travel to Old Orchard Beach and swim in the ocean along with visits to other State Park Beaches along Route 1. Finish off the second week with a visit to Pemaquid beach and Light House, a visit to down town Boothbay and a Whale Watch tour out of Booth Bay Harbor.

TAC 4A: 1 Week/ August 1 – August 7: Moose Viewing/Mountain Climbing/ White Water rafting

Take a trip North to Greenville, Maine. Set up camp at Lilly Bay State Park and search for Moose in the surrounding area. Then take a hike up Big Squaw Mountain. Travel to the Forks, Maine for one overnight and one day of White Water Rafting down the Kennebec River.

TAC 4B: 1 Week/ August 8 – August 14: Fort Exploration/Mountain Climbing & Rock Climbing

Travel to Camden Hills State Park in Camden. Climb Mount Batty and Mount Megunticook. Travel to Fort Knox and visit the Observatory. Finish the week by climbing the 80 foot cliffs at Acadia National Park with a trained certified climbing school.